Eye Camp

(28th December 2025)

The simplest method to connect with Almighty is to assist others. on August 11.08.2024, the public was assisted by the National Service Scheme [NSS] Volunteers of Bharathiyar Arts and Science College for Women in cooperation with Aravind Eye Hospital, Salem, during a One-Day Eye Camp at Govt. Girls. Hr. Sec. School, Thalaivasal. For their eye examination, a large number of people from different locations came together. Our volunteers served them all day long while actively participating in the camp with their passionate hearts. NSS program officers guided the volunteers. A team of specialized eye doctors and volunteers would be present to assist the people.

The camp is also suitable for old people, as the doctors will be providing free cataract checkup. To reach out the untreated poor blind people in rural areas and to create awareness among the people of the community that leads to an intervention to clear the backlog of avoidable blindness.There are fifty volunteers are taken part in the Eye Camp. Also, NSS Volunteers are helping the people to write their details.
